Welcome to the first home league game of the 2020/21 season. Sadly, for reasons we all know, this cannot be a physical welcome but a digital one in this programme and the viewing of the game on iFollow.

I would like to start by thanking yet again the splendid efforts of you, our magnificent fans, in your response since our last league game on 7th March. The money generated for the Club by not requesting refunds for season tickets, the acquisition of shares, the crowdfunder, the purchase of goods from the eBay site and the purchase of items from the Club shop has been invaluable in helping the Club through such difficult times. I would also like to thank members of the Mariners Trust led ably by Dave Roberts for the massive amount of time they gave to help with all these fundraising initiatives and helping to man the Club Shop.

> I WOULD LIKE TO START BY THANKING YET AGAIN THE SPLENDID EFFORTS OF YOU, OUR MAGNIFICENT FANS, IN YOUR RESPONSE SINCE OUR LAST LEAGUE GAME ON 7TH MARCH

I do not know when we will be able to welcome you back in person. In accordance with noises coming from the Government, we anticipated that this would be at the beginning of October. This was thrown into doubt with the announcement on 8th September. There may be pilot games this weekend but those will be limited to 1,000 spectators. If there are, and there are no problems, we may still be able to open the ground on 3rd October. We are working towards that.

In the meantime, please continue with your fantastic support. Using iFollow helps to generate income. I know that there may have been technical issues for some, and we always take this back to the EFL so please do contact the Club if there are any going forward. We have also reported certain licensed premises which have been showing games as what they are doing is not only a criminal offence but is robbing the Club of much needed income.

THE GAFFER:

IAN HOLLOWAY

Good afternoon to everyone reading these notes before today's game. It feels very strange to be back playing without the Blundell Park faithful cheering on my lads. I'm missing everybody terribly. It was a big change to my life, coming up here, and all of a sudden that was curtailed by a horrible virus. We might be back but unfortunately the fans aren't and I'm not the same animal without the crowd here! So the quicker you all can get back, the better.

There's no doubt about it, this is the biggest challenge I've faced as a manager because we lost so many of the team from last season that I felt had turned the corner. We'd started playing with confidence and were starting to develop an identity - but I've lost six from my team that beat Scunthorpe in March.

Although it's very different for us, it's also different for everyone else, and what we have to try and do is work hard, pull together and give our fans a team they can be very, very proud of. It might take us a while to get that feeling, but I want a young, fresh, hungry and hard working, footballing team. We are showing signs of that already and I'm very excited about the players I've brought to the club. I'm still waiting to add to the group - I wanted Omar Bogle and I felt we had a good chance to get him but I believe that's not going to happen now. But we are looking to build and I'm delighted to be in control of that.

I wanted to give a special mention to Louis Boyd, who became our youngest ever player last week and scored a wonderful goal. The lad is only 15 and he's done amazingly well. If the fans can't have one of their old heroes back, perhaps they can have a new one instead? We have a number of young players who I have been very impressed by and that's really positive for the future of this club.

Last weekend, we had 59% of the possession against Walsall but only managed half as many shots at goal as they did - that's not good enough. But to have that sort of possession in our first game against a team who was challenging for the play-offs last season and have managed to keep their squad together - that's encouraging. For me, the only thing we were guilty of was not getting bodies into the box enough and capitalising on the amount of possession we had. Ultimately football is about putting the ball in the back of the net and they did that better than us. I was delighted with Ducan Idehen and Louis Boyd, two academy players who made their debut, as I was with Joe Starbuck and Joey Hope, who narrowly missed out on a place on the bench for the game. When my senior players are injured, these boys are going to need to step in and they will get their opportunity if they keep up their efforts.

I'd like to welcome Graham Alexander and his Salford City team to Cleethorpes for today's game. Someone said that Salford are one of the favourites for promotion this season but I don't know how anyone can be favourites. No one knows who's going to be any good, after Covid, but what I would concede is that they will be going for it because they have wealthy owners and they want to take them through the leagues.

After the whole world was placed on pause for the best part of five months, I feel a bit like I'm starting all over again. I want to get this place thriving again. I want to move to a new training ground and I want us to get a new ground eventually. But really I want to help the players and teach them a way of being able to play where it doesn't matter who you are playing against, you still play that way regardless. I want us to impose ourselves on everyone we play, both home and away. I still have an awful lot of work to do but I've done it before and I want to do it again. And I want to do it here because I would love to be successful at this football club.

CAPTAIN'S COLUMN:

MACCA

Afternoon all, I'll start by saying that I will try and make these notes as real as possible, hopefully better than my dress sense and not too dull!

Obviously the result last Saturday was very disappointing, even more so given we came up against a well organised side who have managed to keep the majority of their squad together during this strangest of close/pre seasons, and yet we were very close to getting a result.

Sometimes it's easier to take when you are outplayed or well beaten, which wasn't the case last week. However we, as a group, feel we have given ourselves a real platform to build on over the next few weeks to make sure we get off to a good start. This will also come from playing games week in, week out and working hard on the training ground; through training and Greg's fitness work (which, as much as it pains to say, he's very good at).

> WE, AS A GROUP, FEEL WE HAVE GIVEN OURSELVES A REAL PLATFORM TO BUILD ON OVER THE NEXT FEW WEEKS TO MAKE SURE WE GET OFF TO A GOOD START

Playing without fans is rubbish! Make no mistake, every single player will agree with this. It's just not the same. Whether it's being cheered on or getting booed or shouted at after misplacing a pass or costing a goal. It won't be the same until crowds are back... hopefully it won't be too long!

I will wrap up by firstly saying thanks to anyone who's bothered reading this far down and secondly, hopefully you'll enjoy today's game, whether you're watching/listening or doing what other 'normal' people do on Saturdays when they are not at the football.

GEORGE WILLIAMS

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Ian Holloway pulled off quite a coup when he signed George Williams on a two-year deal in the summer. The classy 25 year-old attacking midfielder is a Welsh international and was part of Chris Coleman's Euro 2016 squad that reached the semi-finals of the tournament.

Born in Milton Keynes (he qualified for Wales through his mother), he progressed through the Dons academy with his friend Dele Alli and briefly became their youngest ever goalscorer, aged 16 years, two months and five days old.

Williams signed for Premier League Fulham in 2012 as a first year academy scholar but had to wait until 2014-15 for a run in the team. That same season, the blonde-haired midfielder made his Wales debut in a friendly game against Holland.

Despite gaining full international honours, Williams had to look away from Craven Cottage for first team opportunities and loan spells at MK Dons, Gillingham and St Johnstone followed before a permanent move to Forest Green Rovers in 2018.

Under the tutelage of Mark Cooper, Williams played 46 times in 2018/19, scoring eight goals and helping Forest Green to the League Two play-offs. However, an injury last season restricted the dead-ball specialist to just four appearances, which ultimately led to his release at the end of campaign.

Now though, Williams is fighting fit and is keen to make a strong start to his Mariners career.

CAREER:

MK Dons, Fulham, MK Dons (Loan), Gillingham (Loan), MK Dons (Loan), St Johnstone (Loan), Forest Green Rovers

MARINERS TRUST

Normally we would start these notes with a welcome to the opposition supporters and wish them a safe journey home but of course we are not able to do that today. These are indeed very strange and difficult times for everyone, and we can only hope and pray that we get back to some semblance of normality at some point this season.

Even when we do start to have crowds back on a limited basis, it really isn't going to be the same with social distancing, restricted movement and limited facilities. For the majority of fans, the Saturday ritual is not just about the football but also about the social occasion with friends, family and those familiar faces that we see at every game and chat about all things GTFC. Unfortunately, the match day experience for every football supporter across the country is going to be very different but, as always, we will adapt and make the most of a very difficult situation.

For this game, the only way to watch is via the iFollow service which costs £10 unless you have purchased a season ticket in which case you will be issued a code for a free match pass. For many, this will be the only way of following the Mariners this season and we have had reports of variable quality with some having no problems at all whilst others have experienced poor quality and difficulties accessing. We are feeding these issues back, it is vital that this service is robust and good quality if it is the fans only way of supporting their club. If it isn't good then they will quickly start to not bother and lose interest. We cannot allow that to happen because the revenue from iFollow will be a key source of income this season. Of the £10 the home club receives, it all (together with the first 500 from the away team) could net around £275K over the course of the season.

> THE RESPONSE OF OUR FANS TO THIS CRISIS HAS BEEN NOTHING SHORT OF REMARKABLE

Financially the return to football is a huge challenge for League 2 Clubs. As we understand it, the clubs didn't really have much choice in the matter with the EFL risking losing the Sky TV money if the season had been postponed. It had been indicated to the clubs that as part of the commitment to return there would be some financial support from the Premier League and/or the Government but this has never materialised. The revenue reduction from lower crowds and associated match day income will be around £1m which is obviously a significant challenge when trying to put together a competitive squad.

The response of our fans to this crisis has been nothing short of remarkable. When Pete Blendell from the Wellington Arms contacted us in April about putting together a scheme to promote shares in the club we thought we might sell around £20k, but here we are now having sold £84K plus a further £17k from other fundraising activity. So, a total of just over £100k raised but it didn't end there, with a further £101k coming from fans donating their season ticket refunds back to the club. Over £200K raised at a time when times are hard for many people because of Covid goes to show yet again just how much this club means to our supporters.

The pre-season has been like no other with only the game against Clee Town and a couple of trialist games before the opening game against Morecambe in the EFL Cup. With uncertainty about whether the season would start, the squad has come together late in the day and it is going to take a few weeks to fully gel but we can already see that we will be in for an entertaining season. Today's game will be another difficult one with Salford forecast to be one of the favourites for promotion but hopefully we can get the first win of the season under our belts.

Keep the faith & UTM!

THE JUNIORS JAUNT

A FOCUS ON THE ACADEMY AND YOUTH TEAM

Academy star Louis Boyd hit the headlines last week when he became the club's youngest ever debutant and goalscorer.

The 15-year-old came off the bench against Harrogate Town in the EFL Trophy to score The Mariners' second in the 2-2 draw. Since then, the dynamic left winger who joined the club's academy in 2018 from local junior side Discoveries Flyers, completed a memorable week by also making his full league debut at the weekend at Walsall.

Speaking to The Mariner about his exciting start to the season, Boyd said, "I only found out the night before the game that I was in the first team squad for the Harrogate game when I received a call from Neil Woods."

With Town 1-0 up in the tie, Ian Holloway turned to the 15 year-old midfielder to replace Joey Hope and in doing so broke a historic club record held by Grimsby legend Tony Ford. "I was extremely proud to break the record held by Tony Ford and I'm still lost for words that I managed to break such a long standing record."

Within minutes of breaking one record, Boyd broke another when he smashed home Town's second goal from the edge of the box, "I couldn't believe I'd scored. It was a moment I will always remember," he added.

After completing a fairytale week with his league debut at the weekend, the local lad who's still at school and part of the Under 16's this season spoke about his hopes for the rest of the campaign, "My target is to keep developing and improving and working extremely hard. I hope that I am able to impress the manager enough to get more opportunities playing for the first team."

GRIMSBY TOWN WOMEN'S FC:

NEW SEASON, NEW CHALLENGES

KIM BROWN

SOPHIE BELL

The new season for the women's team brings about brand new challenges. Following the disappointment of an early curtailment to last season, spirits were then lifted with the news that The FA felt that the achievements of the Mariners in their first season merited a move up to the 6th tier of the women's football pyramid. This means that they will now play in the East Midlands Women's Regional League, where opponents such as Chesterfield, Notts County, Mansfield Town and Lincoln United play their football.

The curtain raiser to the 2020/21 campaign is the women's first ever venture into FA Cup football, with a home tie at Bradley Football Development Centre on Sunday 20th September, kicking off at 2pm. The opponents in the preliminary round will be Ollerton Town Ladies who play a tier above in the East Midlands Women's Premier League. Manager Dale Houlston will be looking to register a cup upset and is keen to progress to the next stage of the competition. He told us, "It is fantastic that we are entered in the Women's FA Cup this season, and we will be doing our best to progress through the preliminary and qualifying rounds. We don't know a lot about Ollerton Town Ladies, but we do know that we have a very good team here and we should be confident in our ability to be able to progress".

> COMPETITION FOR PLACES IS GOING TO BE REALLY GOOD THIS SEASON, AND SO IT SHOULD BE

The closed season has been very busy for Dale, bolstering the team with new additions. He's been his usual ambitious self too in his approach to strengthening, leaving no stone unturned in his desire to build what he hopes is another promotion winning team. Two of those players come in the form of highly experienced former Sheffield United and Barnsley players Sophie Bell and Kim Brown. Both players have been plying their trade in the FA Women's National League, and to have such quality coming down the pyramid to play at tier 6 will be seen as a message of intent to others in the league.

On the new signing Dale commented, "I am very pleased with our additions this season, particularly with regards to Sophie and Kim. These are highly experienced players who last season were in what was looking like a title winning Women's National League team, and they were both involved with a super FA Cup run too, which sadly for them eventually ended in a defeat at Tottenham Hotspur. In Sophie we have a real athlete with fantastic technical ability. She is a real winner and she must be horrible to play against, I don't think many defenders are going to look forward to having to stop her this season. Kim is a superb player too, capable of playing practically anywhere on the park, but we see her has been instrumental in the midfield. We've also been joined by a new goalkeeper in former Boston United goalkeeper Danielle Richardson, as well as a striker from Barton called Lindsay Crofton. So competition for places is going to be really good this season, and so it should be. But I have also continued to put a bit of faith in young local players too, and I have brought in a really good prospect in 18 year old Leah Wray from Cleethorpes Town. Leah joins what was already a super group of younger players and I am looking forward to seeing how she progresses".

MIDFIELDER

8. DARRON GIBSON

Experienced central midfielder Darron signed a new one-year deal with Salford after making four appearances towards the end of last season. The 32-year-old graduated through the Manchester United academy, and won one Premier League title, two League Cups and a FIFA Club World Cup before signing for Everton in January 2012 for an undisclosed fee. He spent the next five years at Goodison Park before joining Sunderland in January 2017, although he left in March 2018 and spent the 2018-19 season at Wigan Athletic. Gibson has won 27 caps for the Republic of Ireland during his career and was part of Ireland's squad at Euro 2012.

Previous Clubs:
Manchester United, Royal Antwerp (Loan), Wolverhampton Wanderers (Loan), Everton, Sunderland, Wigan Athletic

FORWARD

19. JAMES WILSON

James Wilson signed for Salford in January 2020 on a two-and-a-half year deal from Aberdeen. The former Manchester United youngster made an immediate impression at The Peninsula Stadium, scoring twice off the bench as a substitute against Plymouth Argyle. He also scored twice on his debut for Manchester United against Hull City in 2014, and went on to make 20 senior appearances for the Red Devils around loan spells with Brighton & Hove Albion, Derby County, Sheffield United and Aberdeen. After his release from Old Trafford in 2019 he signed for The Dons, but returned to England a few months later to sign for Salford. The 24-year-old represented England at youth level from Under-16s to Under-21s.

Previous Clubs:
Manchester United, Brighton & Hove Albion (Loan), Derby County (Loan), Sheffield United (Loan), Aberdeen (Loan), Aberdeen.

FORWARD

Top scorer for the last six seasons, Henderson has reached double figures in nine of the last ten seasons and fired Rochdale to promotion from League Two in 2013-14. A graduate of the Norwich City academy, where he won promotion to the Premier League, Henderson has played throughout the Football League with the likes of Rotherham United, Northampton Town and Colchester United.

MARINERS MEMORIES:

WALKING DOWN THE GRIMSBY ROAD

Football has always been so much more than two 45 minute halves. It's about matchday routines, life experiences, precious time with friends and family and finding somewhere else where you feel you belong in life. Unfortunately this season, we, as fans, might not be able to set foot in Blundell Park, but that doesn't mean we can't reminisce about what makes our home away from special.

In this article, Carl Hullett looks back at his forty year love affair with The Mariners and the people he's shared his passion with.

CARL IN 1990

Walking down the Grimsby Road is exactly what we do every home game and for me this obsession started on April 16th 1981. My Dad was never interested in football so my addiction to The Mariners was through my Granddad, Albert Jackson.

Playing an Oldham side containing a certain Sir Paul Futcher, would start a lifetime of stress and heavy spending but a connection which has so far lasted 40 years. That first game, Albert stood with friends as usual in the Constitutional Corner while I, only seven years old, perched on a box to the right of the goal in the Pontoon Stand. The positioning would prove defining when it comes to my earliest memory. In a game that ended 0-0, captain Joe Walters thundered a penalty wide of the goal, hitting the advertising hoarding right in front of where I was stood. To this day I still remember the fans swaying forward in anticipation and the thud of the ball, turning around in awe at the crowd behind me, the noise, the smell of cigars, drinks flying everywhere and the fans surging forward when Town attacked. 'onthisGTFCtoday', the superb Twitter account, showed footage of that game which was brilliant to see and I have also managed to purchase the programme.

I have snapshots of memories from those earlier days. Wanting to go home Easter Monday '82 versus Barnsley after being 2-0 down at half time, until a brace from the classy Whymark helped to a 3-2 win. Queueing up on Imperial Avenue for the game against QPR in '83; the match already in play and missing the early Bobby Cummings' goal. Being soaked by a huge hail storm. Smashing a running race at Strand Street School and winning two tickets to the next home game against Derby (Dave Swindlehurst scored from miles out). Walking towards Blundell Park as hundreds of Watford fans passed by on coaches for the 1985 FA Cup third round encounter, while signalling all sorts of hand gestures towards us! Being ball boy in 1987 when Town played Reading with the home fans in the Osmond Stand and hitting a beautiful volley to Nigel Batch in goal to the delight of the home supporters who previously had been flicking stones at me!

It became a way of life and something to look forward to on a Saturday. By the late 80's, I attended most home games, always with my Granddad, as well as some with my cousin Rob Coppin. Although I did have a brief period as a steward as well. This was around the time when away fans congregated in the corner between the Main and Pontoon stands. During one particular game against Stockport, I gesticulated towards their fans and the nearby police officer told me to get him a drink, pointing in the direction of the away end! Within five minutes of collecting my £3 wage, it was spent on sweets in the corner shop.

CARL WITH HIS COUSIN ROB COPPIN

ALBERT JACKSON IN THE ALBION

As the years went by, the tables turned and I started to look after Albert and take him to games. We used to start off in The Albion for a few beers before sneaking in The Imp for another with the wonderful Bernard Morley. At this point we sat in the Lower Stones and witnessed some great games but also a change in fortune as we tumbled down the leagues. Albert's last game before becoming too ill to attend was the 2006 victory over a Shrewsbury Town team containing current Mariners player-coach, Ben Davies. It was a great era and I am thankful my Granddad nudged me toward the black and white stripes, and I didn't just follow the trend at the time which was Liverpool. Luckily, I've instilled that passion into my family, especially the youngest, Jack, who despite living away for the last seven years, still bought a season ticket. The pull became too much, and he now lives back in Cleethorpes.

When I do travel back from West Yorkshire, although not as frequently as before, we have a good, friendly group and have fun chatting all things Grimsby Town. Coming over the last flyover, the skyline has changed with the demolition of the flats and the lowering of the floodlights but the walk, talk and meeting of familiar faces (although a few are sadly now gone) in our famous old ground never changes. Despite the stadium losing its aura when the terracing disappeared, it's still our church, our BP.

It will be a sad day when the club moves on and the history is left behind, but by then, I might be long gone. Let's hope the next arena gives future generations the great memories previous ones have witnessed and under Holloway this could be soon.

Thanks Granddad x UTM

EVERYONE HAS REALLY GOT BEHIND THE CLUB AND ALL OF THE PLEDGES, GESTURES AND OFFERS OF SUPPORT HAVE BEEN ABSOLUTELY MAGNIFICENT

Good afternoon everybody and welcome back to our first home game of the 2020-21 season.

May I take this opportunity to thank all of the Club's supporters and sponsors for all their continued support during this global pandemic. Everyone has really got behind the Club and all of the pledges, gestures and offers of support have been absolutely magnificent.

I'm sure everybody has been affected in some way by this virus and I hope that you are all keeping safe and well as we all adjust to a new 'normal'.

Looking forward, we are all hoping for a return to watching the Mariners at Blundell Park as soon as is safely possible and hopefully this will be within the coming weeks.

Once again, thank you to everybody for your fantastic efforts through these testing times and I look forward to welcoming you back to Blundell Park in the near future.

Kind regards,
Dave Smith
